Easter 2025

HELLO THERE,

A Mystical Easter Celebration Awaits at Seaside Finolhu Baa Atoll Maldives!

As Easter approaches, we are delighted to welcome you to an unforgettable celebration here at Seaside Finolhu Baa Atoll. This year, we have added a mystical touch to our festivities, with our island's sacred relic known as the Heart of Finolhu, a glowing stone said to be blessed by the spirit of life and renewal. But, in true Easter spirit, the mischievous Easter Bunny has decided to add a bit of excitement by whisking it away, bringing a playful twist to our holiday celebrations.

In keeping with the season of renewal, we have meticulously crafted a collection of extraordinary experiences to elevate your stay. Join us in a thrilling quest to restore harmony and preserve the beauty of our beloved island. Whether you are embarking on a fun-filled Easter egg hunt, savouring decadent feasts, taking on the Family Fun Challenge, or participating in the exhilarating Amazing Race, we have something special for every guest to enjoy especially with our new facilities, Padel Tennis, Art Lab and Teens Hut. There is an abundance of surprises and endless possibilities awaiting you. To discover the full line-up of activities, simply explore through your in-room television or the Finolhu App.

On behalf of the entire Finolhu Family, I wish you a joyful and memorable Easter celebration. Let the magic unfold as we create lasting memories together.

GENERAL MANAGER

Mystical Finolhu Easter

On a bright Easter morning, the crystal-clear waters by the shores of the mystical island "Finolhu" shimmered under the golden sun. The soft waves lapped against the shore, echoing the whispers of ancient stories, stories of adventure, courage, and renewal. This was the perfect setting for a celebration unlike any other, one that honoured the spirit of Easter and the timeless journey of transformation.

At the heart of the island's Easter tradition is a sacred relic known as the Gem of Finolhu, a glowing stone said to be blessed by the spirit of life and renewal. But this time, an ominous force threatened the island's peace. A fiery spirit of chaos, known only as the Flame Warden, had awoken from a long slumber, intent on stealing the Heart of Finolhu and casting a shadow over the land. In response, the island's guardian called upon the children, youths, and families of Finolhu to embark on an epic voyage, a journey that would test their courage and the strength of their bonds. They ventured through lush, talking forests where ancient trees shared riddles, across glistening shores where dolphins danced alongside them, and into hidden islands where glowing sea crystals illuminated their path. The ocean itself seemed to guide them, waves shimmering under the moonlight as if protecting the adventurers on their quest.

Under the starry night, a final toast was made to the journey of transformation, the Easter celebration was a journey, one of rediscovery, of honouring the past, and embracing the future. The Kaleidoscope of Finolhu's adventure, full of hope and courage, had guided the guests into a new season, one filled with endless possibilities and the promise of brighter days ahead.
